Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

- b) Shall be endorsed or accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated; and
- c) Shall be lodged with the Public Officer of the Association;

(4)

As soon as practical after receipt of a nomination, the Public Officer shall refer the nomination to the committee.

(5)

Upon a nomination being approved by the committee, the Public Officer shall, with as little delay as possible, notify the nominee, in writing, that he/she has been approved for membership of the Association and, upon receipt of the sum payable by or on behalf of the nominee as his/her first years subscription, shall enter the nominee's name in a register of members to be kept by the Public Officer, whereupon the nominee becomes a member of the Association.

(6)

A member of the Association may, at any time, resign from the Association by delivering or sending by post to the Public Officer, a written notice of resignation.

(7)

The Public Officer shall remove the name of a member who has died, resigned or has not paid the annual subscription specified in sub-clause (1) of this rule by 31st December of the financial year prescribed in Rule 30, from the register of members whereupon that member ceases to be a member of the Association.

(8)

A right, privilege, or obligation of a person by virtue of his/her membership of the Association:

- a) Is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and
- b) Terminates upon the cessation of his/her membership, whether by death, resignation or otherwise.

In the event of the Association being wound up:

- a) Every member of the Association and every person who within the period of twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the winding up, was a member of the Association is liable to contribute to the assets of the Association for payment of the debts or liabilities of the Association and for the costs, charges, and expenses of the winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves such sum, not exceeding ten dollars as may be required, but a former member is not liable so to contribute in respect of any debt or liability of the Association contracted after he/she ceased to be a member; and
- b) If there remains, after satisfaction of all of its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association but shall be given or transferred in a manner determined by a majority of members at a special general meeting convened for this purpose under Rule 12(1).

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

- Income and property of the Association
6. (1)
The income and property of the Association, however derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by dividend, bonus, or otherwise, to any member of the Association.
- (2)
The Association shall not:
- a) Appoint a person who is a member of the committee to any office in the gifts of the Association to the holder of which there is payable any remuneration by way of salary, fees, or allowances; or
 - b) Pay to any such person any remuneration or other benefit in money or moneys worth (other than the payment of out-of-pocket expenses).
- (3)
Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this rule prevents the payment in good faith to a servant or member of the Association of:
- a) Remuneration in return for services actually rendered to the Association by the servant or member or for goods supplied to the Association by the servant or member in the ordinary course of business;
 - b) Interest at a rate not exceeding seven and one quarter per cent on moneys lent to the Association by the servant or member; or
 - c) A reasonable and proper sum for the use of any premises or other property made available to the Association by the servant or member.
- Accounts of receipts, expenditure etc
7. (1)
True accounts shall be kept:
- a) Of all sums of money received and expended by the Association and the matter in respect of which the receipt of expenditure takes place; and
 - b) Of the property, credits and liabilities of the Association;
- And subject to any reasonable restrictions as to time and manner of inspecting them that may be imposed by the Association for the time being, those accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members of the Association.
- (2)
The Treasurer of the Association shall faithfully keep all general records, accounting books, and records of receipts and expenditure connected with the operations and business of the Association in such form and manner as the committee may direct.
- (3)
The accounts, books, and records referred to in sub-clause (1) and (2) of this rule shall be kept at the Association's office or at such other place as the committee may decide.
- Banking and finance
8. (1)
The Treasurer of the Association shall, on behalf of the Association, receive all moneys paid to the Association and forthwith after the receipt thereof, issue official receipts therefore.

(2)

The committee shall cause to be opened with such bank as the committee selects a banking account in the name of the Association into which all moneys received shall be paid by the Treasurer as soon as possible after receipt thereof.

(3)

The committee may receive from the Associations bank or bankers for the time being the cheques drawn by the Association on any of its accounts with the bank or bankers and may release and indemnify the bank or bankers from and against all claims, actions, suits, or demands that may be brought against the bank or bankers arising directly or indirectly out of those cheques or the surrender thereof to the Association.

(4)

Except with the authority of the committee, no payment of a sum exceeding two dollars shall be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Associations bank account, but the committee may provide the Treasurer with a sum to meet urgent expenditure, subject to the observance of such conditions in relation to the use and expenditure thereof as the committee may impose.

(5)

No cheques shall be drawn on the Associations bank account except for the payment of expenditure that has been authorised by the committee.

(6)

All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer or in either case such other member or members of the committee as the committee may nominate for that purpose.

Appointment of an auditor

9. (1)

At each annual general meeting of the Association, the members present shall appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.

(2)

A person appointed shall hold office until the annual general meeting next after that at which he/she is appointed and is eligible for re-appointment.

(3)

The first auditor of the Association may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting, and if so appointed, shall hold office until the first annual general meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the members at a general meeting, in which case the members at that meeting may appoint an auditor to act until the first annual general meeting.

(4)

If an appointment is not made at an annual general meeting, the committee shall appoint an auditor of the Association for the then current financial year of the Association.

(5)

Except as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule, the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.

(6)

If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor during the course of a financial year of the Association, the committee may appoint a person as the auditor and the person so appointed shall hold office until the next succeeding annual general meeting.

Audit of accounts

10. (1)

1. An incorporated association is exempt from complying with audit provisions of the Incorporations Act if the revenue of the registered entity for that financial year is less than $250,000.

Therefore the Association accounts shall only be examined by an Auditor if the annual revenue of the Association exceeds $250,000.

Or

At a Special General Meeting, a resolution is passed requesting an examination of the Associations accounts

(1a)

If at a special general meeting requisitioned in accordance with Rule 12, a resolution is passed that the accounts of the Association shall be examined by the auditor, the auditing provisions of these Rules shall be executed irrespective of any approved exemption so obtained through the provisions of sub-rule (1) of this Rule.

(2)

The auditor shall certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association and shall report thereon to the members present at the annual general meeting.

(3)

In his/her report, and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor shall state:

- a) Whether he/she has obtained all information required by him/her;
- b) Whether, in his/her opinion, the accounts are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at his/her disposal and the explanations given to him/her and as shown by the books of the Association; and
- c) Whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.

(4)

The Treasurer of the Association shall cause to be delivered to the auditor, a list of all the accounts, books, and records of the Association;

(5)

The auditor:

- a) Has a right of access to the accounts, books, records, vouchers, and documents of the Association;
- b) May require from the servants of the Association such information and explanations as may be necessary for the performance of his/her duties as auditor;
- c) May employ persons to assist him/her in investigating the accounts of the Association; and

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

- d) May, in relation to the accounts of the Association, examine any member of the committee or any servant of the Association.

Annual General Meeting

2. (1)

The Association shall, in each year, hold an annual general meeting.

(2)

The annual general meeting shall be held on such day (being not later than six months after the close of the financial year of the Association) as the committee may determine.

(3)

The annual general meeting shall be in addition to any other general meetings that may be held in the same year.

(4)

The annual general meeting shall be specified as such in the notice convening it.

(5)

The ordinary business of the annual general meeting shall be:

- a) To confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;
- b) To receive from the committee, auditor and servants of the Association, reports upon the transaction of the Association during the last preceding financial year;
- c) To elect the office bearers of the Association and the ordinary committeemen;
- d) To appoint the auditor and determine his/her remuneration; and
- e) To determine the remuneration of servants of the Association.

The annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.

(7)

All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called special general meetings.

Special General Meeting

3. (1)

The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

(2)

The committee shall, on the requisition in writing of not less than two members, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

(3)

A requisition for a special general meeting shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by the persons making the requisition and deposited at the office of the Association and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.

(4)

If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within twenty one days from the date on which a requisition therefor is deposited at the office of the Association, the requisitionists, or any of them, may convene the meeting; but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of the deposit of the requisition.

(5)

A special general meeting convened by requisitions in pursuance of these Rules shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which those meetings are convened by the committee, and all reasonable expense incurred in convening the meeting shall be refunded by the Association to the persons incurring them.

Notices of
meetings

4. The Public Officer of the Association shall, at least fourteen days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association, cause to be inserted in at least one newspaper published in this State, an advertisement specifying the place, day, and time for holding of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.

Business and quorum of general
meetings

5. (1)
All business that is transacted at special general meetings and all business that is transacted at the annual general meeting, with the exception of that specifically referred to in these rules as being the ordinary business of the annual general meeting, shall be deemed to be special business.

(2)

No item of business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present during the time when the meeting is considering that item.

(3)

Four members personally present (being members entitled under these rules to vote thereat) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.

(4)

If within one hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and (unless another place is specified by the chairman at the time of the adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

President to preside at general meeting

6. (1)
The President, or in his/her absence, the Captain, or in the absence of both the President and the Captain, the Secretary shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Association.

(2)

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

If the President, the Captain and the Secretary are absent from the general meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside as chairman thereat.

- Adjournment of general meeting
7. (1)
The chairman of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (2)
Where a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, the like notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.
- (3)
Except as provided in the foregoing provisions of this rule, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- Determination of question arising at general meetings
8. A question arising at a general meeting of the Association shall be determined on a show of hands and unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on the show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association is evidence of the matters stated in the entry, without further proof.
- Votes
9. (1)
Upon any question arising at a meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.
- (2)
All votes shall be given personally.
- (3)
In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the chairman of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
- Making of poll
10. If at a meeting, a poll on any question is demanded, it shall be taken at that meeting in such a manner as the chairman may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.
- When poll to be taken
11. A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith, and a poll that is demanded on any other question shall be taken at such a time before the close of the meeting as the chairman may direct.
- Affairs of the Association to be managed by the committee
12. (1)
The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the committee of management constituted as provided in Rule 23.

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

(2)

The committee:

- a) Shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association;

- a) The President, or his/her absence, the Captain, or in the absence of both the President and the Captain, the Secretary; or
- b) If the President, the Captain and the Secretary are absent, such one of the remaining members of the committee as may be chosen by the committee present, shall preside.

(7)

Questions arising at meetings of the committee or of any sub-committee shall be determined on a show of hands or, if demanded by a member, by a poll taken in such a manner as the person presiding at the meeting may determine.

(8)

Each member present at a meeting of the committee or of any sub-committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote and, in the event of any equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.

(9)

Written notice of each committee meeting shall be served on each member of the committee by delivering it to him/her at a reasonable time before the meeting or by sending it by post in a prepaid letter addressed to him/her at his/her usual or last known place of abode in time to reach him/her in due course of post before the date of the meeting.

Disclosure of interest on contracts etc

18. (1)

A member of the committee who is interested in any contract or arrangement made or proposed to be made with the Association shall disclose his/her interest at the first meeting of the committee at which the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, if his/her interest then exists, or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the committee after the acquisition of his/her interest.

(2)

If a member of the committee becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made or entered into, he/she shall disclose his/her interest at the first meeting of the committee after he/she becomes so interested.

(3)

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

No member of the committee shall vote as a member of the committee in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he/she is interested and if he/she does vote, his/her vote shall not be counted.

- Sub-committees and executive committee
19. (1)
The committee may at any time appoint a sub-committee from the committee as it may think fit and shall prescribe the powers and functions thereof.
- (2)
The committee may co-opt as members of a sub-committee such persons as it thinks fit, whether or not those persons are members of the Association, but a person so co-opted is not entitled to vote.
- (3)
Three appointed members of a sub-committee constitute a quorum at a meeting of the sub-committee.
- (4)
The Public Officer of the Association is responsible for calling meetings of a sub-committee.
- (5)
Written notice of each sub-committee meeting shall be served on each member of the sub-committee by delivering it to him/her at a reasonable time before the meeting or by sending it by post in a pre-paid letter addressed to him/her at his/her usual or last known place of abode in time to reach him/her in due course of post before the date of the meeting.
- (6)
The President, the Vice Presidents, the Treasurer and the Secretary constitute an executive committee, which may issue instructions to the Public Officer and the servants of the Association in matters of urgency connected with the management of the affairs of the Association during the intervals between meetings of the committee, and where any such instructions are issued, shall report thereon to the next meeting of the committee.
- Annual subscription
20. (1)
Until otherwise fixed pursuant to sub-rule (2) of this rule, the annual subscription payable by members shall be the sum of eighty five dollars ($85.00).
- (2)

Notices

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

22. A notice may be served by or on behalf of the Association upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to the member at his/her usual or last known place of abode.

Expulsion of members

23. (1)

Subject to this rule, the committee may expel a member from the Association if, in the opinion of the committee, the member has been guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association.

(2)

The expulsion of a member pursuant to sub-rule (1) of this rule does not take effect:

- a) Until the expiration of fourteen days after the service on the member of a notice under sub-rule (3) of this rule; or
- b) If the member exercises his/her right of appeal under this rule, until the conclusion of the special general meeting convened to hear the appeal, whichever is the later date.

(3)

Where the committee expels a member from the Association, the Public Officer of the Association shall, without undue delay, cause to be served on the member a notice in writing:

- a) Stating that the committee has expelled the member
- b) Specifying the grounds for the expulsion; and
- c) Informing the member that if he/she so desires he/she may, within fourteen days after the service of the notice on him/her, appeal against the expulsion as provided in this rule.

(4)

A member on whom a notice under sub-rule (3) of this rule is served may appeal against the expulsion to a special general meeting by delivering or sending by post to the Public Officer of the Association, within fourteen days after the service of that notice, a requisition in writing demanding the convening of such a meeting for the purpose of hearing his/her appeal.

(5)

Upon receipt of a requisition under sub-rule (3) of this rule, the Public Officer shall forthwith notify the committee of its receipt and the committee shall thereupon cause a special general meeting of the members to be held within twenty one days after the date on which the requisition is received by the Public Officer.

(6)

At a special general meeting convened for the purpose of this rule:

- a) No business other than the question of the expulsion shall be transacted;
- b) The committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds of the expulsion and the committee's reasons for the expulsion;
- c) The expelled member shall be given the opportunity to be heard; and
- d) The members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question whether the expulsion should be lifted or confirmed.

(7)

Sandford Rifle Club Incorporated – Constitution

If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the lifting of the expulsion, the expulsion shall be deemed to have been lifted and the expelled member is entitled to continue his/her membership of the Association.

(8)

If at the special general meeting, a majority of the members present vote in favour of the confirmation of the expulsion, the expulsion takes effect.

(9)

A person who is expelled ceases to be a member of the Association.

Disputes

24. (1)

Subject to this rule, a dispute between a member of the Association, in his/her capacity as a member, and the Association shall be determined in such manner as the parties to the dispute may agree and in default of agreement by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Commercial Arbitration Act 1986.

(2)

Nothing in this rule affects the operation or effect of rule 32.

Seal of the Association

25. (1)

The seal of the Association shall be in the form of a rubber stamp, inscribed with the name of the Association encircling the word "Seal".

(2)

The seal of the Association shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the committee, and the affixing thereof shall be attested by the signatures either of two members of the committee or of one member of the committee and of the Public Officer of the Association or such other persons as the committee may appoint for that purpose, and that attestation is sufficient for all purposes that the seal was affixed by authority of the committee.

(3)

The seal shall remain in the custody of the Public Officer.
